CARDINAL CALL OUT

Jimmy Moloney

This Cardinal has grown so much this year. He is compassionate, empathetic, and a good friend to many. He's a hard worker and quite conscientious for his age. This Cardinal consistently strives to be kind and supportive and often is more concerned with others' feelings than his own. He leaves a lasting imprint on the hearts of teachers whose paths he has crossed. This Cardinal routinely chooses kindness over judgment. He truly embodies Christ-like values.

Sean Darling

This student deserves to be commended for his hard work and determination. He has become a student who does not give up. He has an awesome attitude in class and always continues to try his best. In his classwork he shows and impressive level of insight and understanding. He is a good friend and is happy to share with his classmates his fun facts and great knowledge of all things dinosaur!
